

INDIAN PARTNERSHIP ACT, 1932

Introduction –

Indian Partnership Act, 1932 is applicable to whole of India.

Act was applicable from 1st October 1932 except for section 69 (effect of non registration) which was applicable from 1st October 1933.

The Act is based on the English Partnership Act, 1890

Meaning of Partnership – Section 4

- Partnership = relationship between persons who have agreed to share the profits of a business carried on by all or any of them acting for all.
- Persons, who have entered into partnership with one another are called individually ‘partners
- Firm’ is the collective of the partners.
- The ‘firm name’ is the name under which the business is carried on.

Important Points on firm’s name –

- ✓ The name of the firm should not be such which will misled or confuse the people with the name of the firm which is already in existence.
- ✓ The name of the firm should not show patronage (connection) with the government.
- ✓ Partnership firm cannot use the word “Limited” as a part of its name.

Essential elements to constitute partnership firm –

- Atleast 2 parties. Persons must be competent to enter into a contract. Parties may be natural or artificial
- Agreement between the parties. Agreement may be oral or in writing. It may be express or implied.
- Agreement must be to share the profits of the business; and
- Business must be carried on by all or any of them acting for all;

Important Points –

Members of HUF carrying on family business together are not partners.
Burmese Buddhist Husband and wife doing business together are not partners.

Sharing of Profits is not the only evidence for partnership –

This means that of two person are only sharing profit then it does not means that they both are partners.

Example –

- 1) A joint owner of a property sharing its return with the other owner does not make joint owners partner.
- 2) “Arnab” a trader, owed money to X, Y& Z. He agreed to pay XY&Z out of the profits of his business. Even if X, Y and Z will get their money from the property of Arnab, it does not make them partner of Arnab

Minor as a partner of the firm – Section 30

- 1) Minor can become partner for the benefits of the partnership with the consent of all the partners
- 2) For admitting minor as a partner, an agreement shall be executed through his guardian

Rights of minor in partnership firm	Liabilities of minor in partnership firm
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Right to share profits of the firm</li> <li>Right to share property of the firm</li> <li>Right to inspect accounts of the firm</li> <li>Right to take copy of the accounts</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Minor is not personally liable</li> <li>However, share of minor in the firm is liable</li> </ul>

Election on majority –

- a) On attaining majority, or his obtaining knowledge that he had been admitted to the benefits of partnership; whichever date is later, minor may within six months from such date give public notice that he has elected to a partner in the firm or not.
- b) If a minor fails to give such notice, he shall become a partner in the firm on the expiry of the said six months.

Partnership Deed –

- 1) Written document which contains the mutual rights and obligations of partners is known as partnership deed.
- 2) Partnership Deed is not mandatory.
- 3) However, it is advisable to have partnership deed in writing.
- 4) If there is partnership deed then each partner should have 1 copy.
- 5) If the firm is to be registered then a copy of the deed should be filed with the Registrar of Firms.

What are the contents of partnership deed?

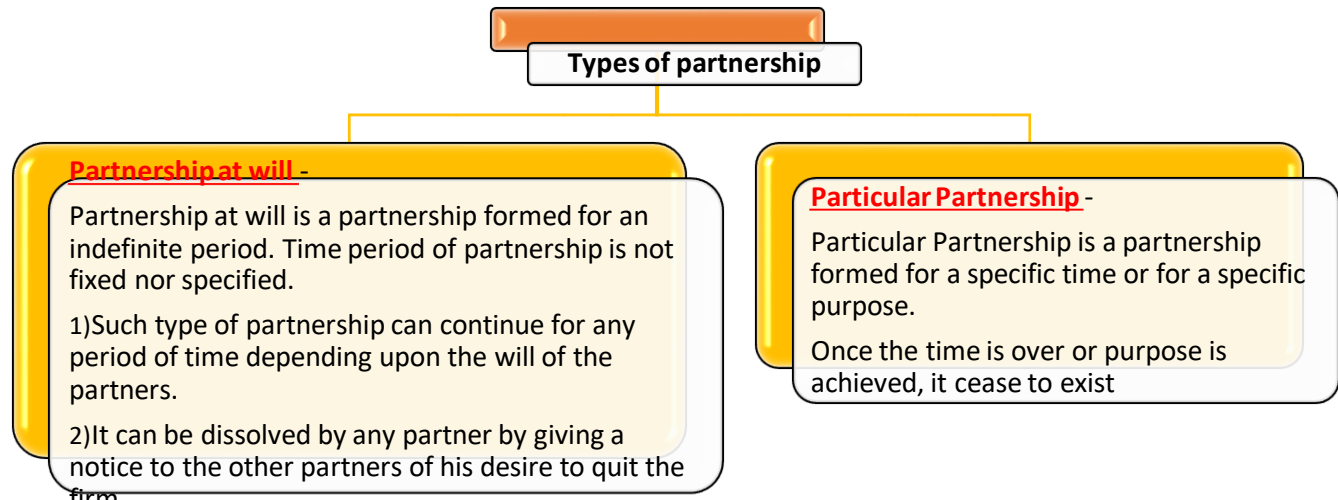

Partnership deed should contain the following details –

- Firm name;
- Names and addresses of partners;
- Details of business of partnership;
- Address of business place;
- Profit sharing ratio
- Date of commencement of partnership firm;
- Duration of partnership firm;
- Amount of capital contribution;
- Salaries, commission and remuneration to partners;
- Rights of the partners;
- Liabilities of the partners;
- Details of retirement of partners;
- Provision for expulsion of a partner;
- Arbitration clause for the settlement of disputes.

Difference between Co-ownership and partnership –

Partnership	Co-ownership
It arises from agreement	It may or may not arise from agreement
Purpose of partnership is to carry business	It may or may not involve carrying business
It involves profit and loss	It may or may not involve profit or loss
